Freshwater is exciting Bluegrass music!

Drawing from a broad spectrum of musical styles and influences, the band consists of an outstanding multi instrumentalist who always had an appreciation for Bluegrass but never found the right musicians to play it with until now; a Suzuki trained fiddle player who has a down home bluesy voice that mesmerizes audiences; a Harley rider with an appreciation for big bikes and resonator guitars and two lifelong Bluegrass fanatics--one of whom is a Wisconsin Hall-of-Fame Track Coach and computer wizard, a multitasking solo performer and healthcare professional, and finally a bass player who plays a number of musical styles and provides the foundation for Freshwater's unique sound.

From the deepest pools of traditional and contemporary Bluegrass to original material, Freshwater is sure to suit the tastes of every discerning listener.

Freshwater's got it all! With Bill Garvey on guitar and vocals, Don Damaschke on mandolin and vocals, Harvey Riekoff on banjo and vocals, Dennis Waltman on Dobro and vocals, Melissa Baccash on fiddle, guitar and vocals and Gregg Holmes on bass
